

Historical Radio Interview of the Wright Brothers

Directions: You and your partner or group will research the Wright Brothers and the Wright Flyer. Write an interview that will cover the important parts of the event. Make sure your information is historically accurate. Use the note taking guidesheet to help you organize your research. Then use the information to write an interview. Have each member in your group take a role and then record your interview.

Note Taking Guidesheet

Event:

Date:

People involved:

Special preparations (training, research) for event:

Weather during event:

Any particular problems encountered before and during the event:

A brief description of what this event was like for the people involved: